2018 Annual Meeting & Election List of Board of Director Nominees & Biography

Raymond F.Y. Blas

Reasons for wanting to serve as a Board of Director: As a current Board Member of the Coast360 Family, it has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve our Membership. My reasons for wanting to serve as a Board of Director have remained unchanged – to contribute to enriching the lives our Membership and our island community. What has changed is my increased passion, dedication and commitment to growing our Membership and contributing to the improvements in our delivery of services to our Members and our community.

Employment History & Current Position: I am currently employed as the Federal Grants Administrator for the Governor's Community Outreach – Federal Programs Office. My primary responsibilities include overseeing the daily operations, management and administration of federal grants awarded by the U.S. Dept. of Justice. My previous employment history is comprised of over 20 years of government service in the Directorship and Chief of Staff capacity.

Education Degrees: I am a 1970 Graduate of the Father Duenas Memorial High School and participant of the Navy Apprenticeship Program (High Voltage Electrician 1970-1973).

Brief Description of Volunteer Activities: I continue to serve in a volunteer capacity for our island's annual Guam Special Olympics, tasked with logistics and coordination. My volunteer work also extends to our island's bi-annual Guam Coastal Clean-up and Island-wide Beautification Task Force cleaning events.

Matthew Paulino Quinata

Matthew P. Quinata is currently a Chief Internal Auditor/Budget and Management Analyst with the Bureau of Budget and Management Research. He has worked over 29 years with the Government of Guam.

As a Coast360 Board Member, he has played a major role in working with his fellow Board Members in shaping and supporting the strategic vision of the credit union. Matthew is an alumnus of the University of Guam. He graduated from the College of Business with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Accounting. He is a past president and member of the Association of Government Accountants. He also served as their Newsletter Editor for several years winning Newsletter awards for several years. He has also served as a Board Chairman and Treasurer with his church board.

Matthew continues to focus on the credit union's philosophy of "member helping member". He keeps this philosophy in mind as he decides on policies to ensure we are adequately helping our members with their financial needs. He inquires and finds the opportunity to challenge management to go the extra mile to assist our credit union members. He wants the credit union to be top of mind for our members and potential members when shopping for their deposit and loan products. This in mind, he strives to ensure the financial security of Coast360 Federal Credit Union, its members and for members to develop a strong relationship with the credit union, build trust and utilize the great products and services the credit union provides.
